Braeden O'Donnell (18) a tall, left arm seamer from Lancashire, England.

A product of the Lancashire County Cricket Club Academy and Emerging Players Programme (EPP), Braeden has progressed through the County Age Group system, earning a reputation as a promising young quick with excellent fundamentals and a mature approach to his craft.

In 2025, the youngster joined Flowery Field Cricket Club, competing in the Greater Manchester Cricket League (GMCL). So far this season, Braeden has impressed—averaging 20 with the ball—and is known for his ability to swing the new ball and hit challenging, heavy lengths in the middle and death overs. His tall frame and natural left-arm angle give him an edge, making him a consistent threat across all phases of the innings.

Now eager to continue developing his game abroad, the young seamer is seeking to experience overseas cricket for the 2025/26 season. With the desire to immerse himself in a new club culture and adapt to foreign conditions, Braeden is ready to make a positive impact both on and off the field.

A driven and focused cricketer with county pedigree, Braeden O'Donnell will be a valuable addition to any club seeking a young left-arm pace option with long-term potential.
