Brogan Hayman is a talented, dual Passport (NZ/Irish) holding batting all-rounder playing in New Zealand's Waikato region.

Hayman is a left-handed opening batter and right-arm medium-pace bowler playing for Morrinsville Piako Cricket Club, and the Waikato Valley Senior representative sides.

A graduate of the prestigious Hamilton Boys High School, Hayman made a successful transition into Premier club cricket for Morrinsville. After peeling off multiple hundreds for Hamilton Boys, Hayman finished the 2019/20 season with a match-winning century against the highly regarded Tauranga Boys College.

After several impressive performances for Morrinsville in the Waikato Valley Competition, Hayman was selected to represent the Valley in the Senior Mens Regional One-Day Cup. The highlight of his 2022/23 season was undoubtedly his commanding 79 against Northland at Seddon Park.

The promising rounder is looking to progress in the game, and in view of his development, is set to venture abroad in 2024 having signed with Tring Park for their Thames Valley Cricket League campaign.
