Bryce Jose is a dynamic 19-year-old wicket-keeper batsman from Gauteng, South Africa.

Holder of a British passport, Bryce currently showcases his cricketing talent with Old Parktonians in the Gauteng Cricket League - Premier A.

Having balanced club and school cricket in South Africa, Bryce has honed his skills as a formidable opening batter and a reliable gloveman behind the stumps. Since joining Old Parktonians at just 14, he has steadily progressed to become a mainstay in their Premier A team.

Bryce's impressive first stint in the UK during the 2024 campaign with Thurstonland Cricket Club in the Huddersfield Cricket League saw him score 900 runs (still going) with an average of over 60 with the bat, notching up four half-centuries, and three centuries, with a highest score of 116*. He also excelled behind the stumps, securing over 25 dismissals.

Looking ahead to 2025, Bryce is eager to return to the UK and is undoubtedly a significant signing for any club next summer.
