Buddika Hasaranga is an experienced batting all-rounder currently representing Galle Cricket Club in Sri Lankan domestic cricket. A versatile player, Hasaranga combines his strong batting skills with the ability to keep wicket or bowl off-spin, making him a valuable asset in multiple facets of the game.

He has enjoyed a diverse career that includes several productive stints in Australia. Hasaranga began his domestic journey with Sri Lanka Navy Sports Club, often leading the side as captain. After an impressive maiden season in 2012/13—scoring 531 runs at 33.18—he expanded his experience by playing for clubs such as East Keilor, Aberfeldie Park, St Albans, and Druids in Australia before returning to Sri Lankan first-class cricket in 2023/24.

His domestic career boasts notable first-class season tallies, including 570 runs at 47.50 in 2016/17, 572 runs at 47.66 in 2017/18, and a solid 233 runs at 29.12 in 2023/24. While primarily known for his dependable batting, Hasaranga has also contributed with the ball, taking 13 wickets in domestic competitions.

A seasoned and well-rounded cricketer, Hasaranga is now keen to broaden his horizons by experiencing a UK summer season and comes highly recommended by those familiar with his game.
