C.V. Milind is a seasoned left-arm pace-bowling all-rounder who has quietly carved out one of the most consistent careers in India's domestic circuit. A left-handed batter and a left-arm fast-medium bowler, Milind brings versatility, leadership, and match-winning ability to every side he represents.

His cricketing journey began in earnest when he made his first-class debut for Hyderabad in 2013 at the age of 19. But Milind had already turned heads a year earlier, claiming a sensational T20 hat-trick against Tamil Nadu in the 2012-13 Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy. By the 2014-15 season, he had cemented his place as one of the premier white-ball bowlers in the country, finishing as the leading wicket-taker in the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy with 17 wickets at an average of 14.58.

His consistency in the domestic circuit earned him call-ups to the India U19 squad for the 2014 World Cup, selection for India A in 2017, and contracts with Sunrisers Hyderabad, Delhi Daredevils, and more recently, Royal Challengers Bangalore, who secured his services in the 2022 IPL auction.

Milind's standout ability lies in his white-ball dominance. In the 2021-22 Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy, he once again topped the bowling charts with 18 wickets in just 7 matches at an extraordinary average of 11.00. Across formats, he remains a wicket-taking force:

T20s: 73 matches, 104 wickets, economy under control, and a batting strike rate of 137

List A: 52 matches, 94 wickets and handy lower-order contributions

First-class: 51 matches, 125 wickets and over 1,100 runs with the bat

Now the captain of Hyderabad's domestic side, Milind has evolved into a leader and an impact player, capable of turning games with either bat or ball. His rare combination of left-arm pace and aggressive batting makes him an attractive proposition for T20 leagues around the world.

With over 100 wickets in domestic T20s, ranking him fifth all-time in India's Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy, and a proven ability to deliver under pressure, C.V. Milind is not just a seasoned performer—he's a ready-made match-winner.
