Caiden Eaton (24) is an impressive seam bowling all-rounder from Perth, Australia.

The Aussie is also in the process of obtaining a British Passport. He plays his club cricket for the famous Wanneroo Districts Cricket Club (1st Grade captain) in WACA Premier Cricket, and also has represented Western Australia at 19s and 2nd XI.

Eaton is a hostile left-arm quick who thrives on swing and seam movement early before hitting a heavy length as the innings develops. He attacks the stumps, uses his bouncer effectively, and has built a strong reputation for breaking partnerships and leading bowling groups.

He adapts well across formats, offering smart variations and deceptive slower balls in short-form cricket, while excelling in the longer format where he enjoys working batsmen over across extended spells.

With the bat, Caiden is a clean ball striker who looks to counterattack and build crucial lower to middle order runs. In the field, he is athletic, fully committed, and constantly searching for wicket-taking opportunities through pressure, energy, and intensity.
