Caitlin-Rose Neil, a young talented right arm seam bowler all-rounder, based out of Scotland.

A product of the Cricket Scotland pathway, Caitlin is now into her third year in the setup and is a key member of the U19 squad, with World Cup qualifiers on the horizon.

At club level, she represents Royal High Corstorphine CC in the Women's Premier League, while also playing men's cricket with Arbroath United to gain valuable experience and exposure.

Now seeking her first overseas opportunity, Caitlin is keen to travel alongside teammate Skye Green (also listed on our website).

A fantastic option for any club looking to add committed and high-potential female cricketers for the 2026/27 season.
