Callum Morris (21), a bowling all-rounder from Worcestershire, England.

Morris plays his club cricket for Barnards Green Cricket Club in the Worcestershire County Cricket League, where he has been a key member of the 2nd XI. In the 2024 season, he played a crucial role in the team's promotion to Division One, taking 19 wickets at an impressive average of 14.84. With the bat, he adds valuable contributions down the order, amassing over 350 runs across all formats last season.

A product of Worcestershire County Cricket Club's age-group system from U11 to U15, Morris developed into a well-rounded and intelligent cricketer.

Beyond club cricket, he attended Cardiff University, where he has been a part of the 1st and 2nd XI squads for the past three years. Now, having completed his studies, he is eager to further develop his skills and experience a season abroad.

A self-funded and highly enthusiastic cricketer, Morris would be a fantastic addition to any club looking for a committed and hardworking player who is ready to immerse himself in all aspects of club life.
