Chaitanya Bishnoi is a professional all-rounder with extensive first-class and professional experience across India, England and the United States. A left-handed top-order batsman and left-arm orthodox spinner, he made his first-class debut for Durham MCCU at the age of 18 in 2013, while studying at Hatfield College, Durham University.

He went on to build a substantial domestic career in India with Haryana, representing the state across the Ranji Trophy, Vijay Hazare Trophy and Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy. Across 49 first-class matches he has scored 2,283 runs at an average of 28.53, including a century and 18 fifties, and has added 1,264 List A runs at 30.09 and 1,141 T20 runs at a strike rate of 113.64. His performances at franchise level earned him selection by Chennai Super Kings for the 2018 and 2019 IPL seasons. He is also a member of the Marylebone Cricket Club, for whom he is credited with multiple centuries.

Bishnoi has since established himself in the US cricket scene, representing the San Francisco Unicorns and LA Knight Riders in Major League Cricket. In 2025 he captained the Chicago Raiders to the inaugural Mayor's New World T20 championship, leading the side to an unbeaten campaign capped by a 4-wicket win over the Florida Hurricanes in the final. He has also featured across the Minor League Cricket, Atlanta Open, Houston Open and USPL circuits.

Looking ahead, Bishnoi is aiming to represent the USA at the 50-over World Cup and the 2028 Los Angeles Olympics, alongside continuing to compete in T20 leagues around the world.
