Charlie Downey is an exciting bowling all-rounder currently playing for Bready Cricket Club in the North West Cricket Union.

A talented young cricketer with strong experience at both club and representative level, Charlie has consistently developed through the pathway system and continues to establish himself as a player with significant potential.

Charlie has represented both the Senior and Emerging North West Warriors sides, competing against the other provincial unions across Ireland. Having been involved with the North West Warriors setup since the age of 13, he has gained valuable high-level experience throughout his development.

In 2023, Charlie proudly represented Ireland Under-17 Cricket Team, where he opened the bowling and batted at number seven. During the series against Scotland, he claimed 7 wickets across 3 fifty-over matches, showcasing his ability to perform on the international stage against strong opposition.

One of his standout performances came in the 2023 T20 final for Newbuildings Cricket Club, where he produced a match-winning spell of 5/31 against Fox Lodge. He also demonstrated his composure under pressure during the 2025 season with an unbeaten 41 against Coleraine, helping guide his side to victory in a dramatic last-wicket thriller.

Charlie joined Bready Cricket Club for the 2026 season and made an immediate impact on debut, scoring 30 runs and taking 2 wickets. A determined and competitive all-rounder, he continues to develop his game and gain valuable experience at both club and representative level, with ambitions to keep progressing in Irish cricket with the ultimate goal of representing his country.

Charlie has now signed with White Hills CC for their Bendigo Cricket Association campaign.
