Chathura Randunu has been a standout figure in Sri Lankan domestic cricket for nearly two decades, consistently delivering with both ball and bat. Since making his debut in the 2007/08 season, the seasoned left-arm spinner has compiled a remarkable record across all three formats, playing over 200 matches for a range of professional teams. With more than 440 wickets to his name at an average in the mid-20s – including an impressive 24 five-wicket hauls – Randunu has long been a go-to match-winner in the Sri Lankan circuit.

While it's his crafty left-arm spin that often grabs the headlines, Randunu has also proven himself a dependable lower-middle-order batter. With top scores of 86 in first-class and 59 in List A cricket, he offers genuine all-round value.

His talents have translated impressively abroad too, particularly during his four UK league stints. Across clubs such as Alsager (North Staffs League - 2022), Astley & Tyldesley (GMCL - 2019, 2021), and Epsom (Surrey Championship - 2015), Randunu has delivered over 1,400 runs at an average in the mid-20s and a phenomenal 152 wickets at just under 16 – exceptional returns that speak volumes of his impact and adaptability.

Beyond his playing credentials, Randunu brings great energy as a qualified ECB Level 2 coach, offering his experience and knowledge to the next generation. Now looking ahead, he's eager to take on another overseas challenge, with the 2026 UK season firmly in his sights before potentially heading to Australia thereafter. A high-class cricketer with proven success at home and abroad, Randunu is a fantastic asset for any club seeking a reliable and game-changing professional.
