Chris Taylor is a British Passport holding batting all-rounder (spin) from Gauteng, South Africa.

The dual Passport holder, who was a handy gloveman before transitioning to off-spin, has been a stand-out performer in Gauteng's President's League for Pirate Cricket Club in recent years.

Recommended by Pirates Head Coach, Kerran St Clair, Taylor has won numerous club awards over the years, including "Batter" and "Player" of the Year in 2017/18, alongside the President's League's MVP.

He is aspiring to play professional cricket in the future, and as part of his development played Premier cricket in the North Wales League over the past two seasons.

Playing for Pwllheli, it's fair to say, Taylor excelled during his prolific two-season stint. A total of 1,674 runs at 47.83 (964 runs at 60.25 in 2022) alongside 55 wickets at 27.49 represent outstanding returns.

Taylor comes recommended as not only a fine prospect but someone with a genuine interest in coaching, who is now seeking a UK return in 2023.
