Clive Chitumba is a talented seam bowling all-rounder currently representing the Mountaineers in Zimbabwean domestic cricket. Since making his debut in the 2016/17 Logan Cup, the right-arm pacer has developed into a consistent performer, amassing 45 wickets at an average of 26 across 26 first-class matches. With the bat, Chitumba has contributed valuable runs from the lower-middle order, scoring 772 runs at 19.30.

Over eight domestic seasons, Chitumba has produced several impressive campaigns, including season tallies of 14 wickets at 23.21 (2019/20) and 7 wickets at 22.85 (2021/22). Despite facing stiff competition within a strong Mountaineers squad featuring international seamers like Donald Tiripano and Victor Nyauchi, Chitumba has repeatedly showcased his quality and impact whenever given the opportunity.

A former Zimbabwe Under-19 player and captain of the Rangers in the Alistair Campbell High Performance Programme (2018/19), Chitumba is now keen to broaden his horizons by gaining valuable overseas experience.

Note: With his eligibility window for UK club cricket remaining open until 21 January 2026, he represents an excellent signing for any club seeking a proven all-rounder with both seam bowling prowess and useful batting skills.
