Connor Nel is a highly impressive batting all-rounder (seam) from Free State, South Africa.

Nel who holds a British Passport, is an exciting top order batsman who can score freely all over the ground and more than handy right arm medium pace bowler.

The South African is tipped for the top, and has played for Free State at every age group level right up until 19s level where he represented them at Coca-Cola Khaya Majola week (December 2023), where he contributed with both bat and ball.

Nel emerged from St Andrew's School as a prolific leader and captain of the Free State team. With 80 games for his school's first team, he showcased versatility across formats. Nel's remarkable century in the North South T20 and a phenomenal spell of 6 wickets for 16 runs, including a hat trick, highlighted his exceptional skills. Crowned Cricketer of the Year and Batsman of the Year in 2023 at St Andrew's, he boasts two centuries and six fifties.

The talented all-rounder is currently playing in the strong North West Cricket League for Salesbury Cricket Club, where he has started well, averaging over 40 with the bat and 15 with the ball. Eager to conquer new horizons, Nel sets his sights on playing in Australia in 2025/26
