Conny Sardick (also listed as Lehlohonolo Meso on cricinfo / cricket archive) is a talented brisk medium pacer from Soweto playing for the DP World Lions Women's in South African domestic cricket.

Sardick has been a Lions regular since her debut as a 16-year-old. She has been a key performer for the Lions, picking up numerous awards over the years, including Lions "Women's Bowler of the Year" (2019/20, 2022/23), and "Fans Player of the Season" (2021/22, 2022/23).

The seamer has high aspirations of breaking into the SA Women's Proteas side in future, and as part of her progression, is hoping to secure an opportunity abroad in 2024.

To compliment her playing skills, she has keen, and CSA accredited coach. She has been the Coaching Manager of the Lions U15A and U13s in recent seasons. Sardick is eager to secure a Player/Coach role for the 2024 season.
