Cory Cater is a hugely impressive and talented UK born seam bowling all-rounder from Melbourne, Australia.

Cater is a front line right arm quick, who bowls with good pace, and can swing the ball both ways, he is also a hard hitting middle order batter who is capable of taking the game to the opposition.

At club level the British Passport holder plays Victorian Premier Cricket for Kingston Hawthorn Cricket Club, and last year broke into the 1st grade side, due to his strong showing in the 2s with best figures of 4-10 and a highs score of 69 off 32 balls. Across the top 2 Grades he took 24 wickets at 19, and chipped in with 204 runs at 23.

Moving forward Cater is keen to showcase his skills on a regular basis in Premier Cricket and push for higher honours wether that be in Australia or the UK. The quick is also planning on completing his coaching badge before travel.

Cater is keen to play ECB Premier League cricket in the UK, and for a club with a pathway to NCCA Cricket or County 2nd XI cricket.

No doubt a sought after player for the UK 2025 season.
