Cyrus Shafi (22), an exciting and talented all-rounder from Bristol, England.

Cyrus is an exciting and dynamic slow left-arm spinner and aggressive left-handed batter from Bristol, England. A product of the Gloucestershire CCC age-group system, he represented the county up to U19 level, showcasing his all-round abilities.

At club level, Shafi plays for Golden Hill Cricket Club in the West of England Premier League, where he enjoyed a standout 2024 season, amassing 750+ runs at an average of 35 and proving his versatility with 14 wickets across all competitions.

His performances earned him selection for the South Asian Cricket Academy (SACA), where he competed in all-format fixtures against First-Class County 2nd XI sides, further demonstrating his potential at a higher level.

Shafi is no stranger to Australian conditions, having spent the 2023/24 season in Victoria with Morwell Cricket Club in the Latrobe Valley & District Cricket League, where he was awarded Player of the Year for his outstanding contributions.

Now focused on furthering his development and pushing for professional opportunities, Cyrus is eager to return to Australia or New Zealand for the 2025/26 season. A fantastic addition to any club seeking a skilled and experienced all-rounder who has already proven himself in overseas conditions.
