Danni Eckley is a talented seam bowling all-rounder from Perth, Australia, who holds a British Passport. A frontline right-arm seamer, she bowls with good pace, consistent control, and the ability to trouble top-order batters, while also being a more-than-handy right-handed middle-to-lower-order batter.

At home, Eckley represents the famous Wanneroo District Cricket Club in WACA Premier Cricket, featuring across both A and B Grade. In the 2024/25 season, she impressed with 14 wickets at 17, alongside useful lower-order contributions with the bat.

In 2025, Eckley enjoyed her first overseas stint, playing for Bishop’s Stortford in the Essex Women’s Premier League. She made a strong impact, taking 20 wickets at 18.80 and scoring 140 runs at 20.

Off the field, she holds a Degree in Sports Science and is an enthusiastic coach, happy to contribute to a club’s junior development structure.

Eckley is now seeking a return to the UK in 2026, aiming to continue building on her domestic and overseas success.
