Danni Eckley is a talented seam bowling all-rounder from Perth, Australia.

Eckley who holds a British Passport is a front line right arm seamer who bowls with decent pace and control, and is a more than handy right handed middle/lower order batter.

At club level she quick plays for the famous Wanneroo District Cricket Club in WACA Premier Cricket, playing a combination of A & B Grade cricket, taking 14 wickets at 17 last year and chipping in with runs down the order.

The British Passport holder has recently finished her studies, and has a Degree in Sports Science. She is also a keen coach and happy to be part of a clubs junior coaching structure.

Eckley is now keen to play in the UK for the 2025 season.
