David Mansfield is an experienced batting all-rounder (spin) who originates from Yorkshire, England.

The Englishman is fluent right handed middle order batter, and very handy off spin bowler, who has played in both the North East & Yorkshire ECB Premier Leagues for a number of years.

Hailing from Cleethorpes Cricket Club, Mansfield has racked up nearly 2000 runs for the 1st XI side at an average of 23 with a high score of 111. The all-rounder has also had a stint for Tynemouth Cricket Club in the North East where he attended University and played for 4 years outside of his University commitments, chipping in with nearly 1000 runs at a touch under 20 & 56 wickets at 20.

Mansfield is also a UKCC Level 2 coach and a qualified Primary School teacher. The Englishman is no stranger to Australian shores having spent a season in Melbourne for Keilor Park as a fresh faced 18 year old. The Englishman is currently playing in South Australia for Wayback Cricket Club in the Port Lincoln Cricket Association, and has been one of the star performers in the league with nearly 400 runs at 32 and 24 wickets at 12, due to his strong performances the all-rounder has been part of the League rep side.

The all-rounder now has a year overseas experience under his belt, and is now seeking an opportunity to play in Melbourne for the 2025/26 season. He is keen to travel with a mate, and also potentially sort own accommodation.
