Dellon Peiris is an exciting prospect who, skippered the Sri Lankan Emerging Players on their tour to Japan (May 2023).

The former S. Thomas' College, and Ragama Cricket Club all-rounder, excelled on tour and was subsequently awarded Player of the Series courtesy of topping the wicket charts and producing a couple of match-winning innings.

His selection for the Japan tour came as no surprise, as Peiris has been earmarked for higher honours in recent years. Having dominated College cricket, he starred for Ragama U23s in the Emerging Three Day Tournament (2021/22), before earning his senior white ball (T20 and List A) debuts in March 2021.

In 2022, Peiris was one of the stand-out performers for Ragama in the Major Clubs Limited Overs Tournament taking 17 wickets at 12.35 with his left-arm spin. A few months later (August 2022), he would make his first-class debut for Ragama, and he has subsequently gone on to play 5 red ball matches to date.

A serious prospect, Peiris comes recommended by famous Sri Lankan commentator, Roshan Abeysinghe.

A genuine all-rounder who bats in the top/middle-order and bowls left-arm spin, he spent the UK 2024 season plying his trade for Burbage & Easton Royal. It's fair to say the Sri Lankan young gun impressed in the West of England Premier League hitting 724 runs at 36.20 alongside 36 wickets at 19.56 with ball in hand. He signed again for 2025 and was equally impressive with 419 runs at 22.05 and 40 wickets at 17.43

A qualified coach, he is now eligible to return to the UK and represents a fine option for any club seeking a nice guy and strong all rounder for the coming season.
