Dhanushka Ranasinghe is a left-arm quick playing for Kandy Customs Sports Club in Sri Lankan domestic cricket. Recommended by his former team-mate, UK league legend Chanaka Ruwansiri, Ranasinghe is seeking opportunities abroad, both in the UK and down under.

Ranasinghe can lay claim to holding the best debut figures in Sri Lankan first-class history when bagging 8-76 (23.3) against Sri Lankan Army (March 2020). He would go on to take 10 wickets in the match (10-97).

Prior to his first-class debut, Ranasinghe had spent the past four years plying his trade in Qatar. He dominated Premier League cricket following a glittering junior and school career in Sri Lanka. Prior to his move to Kandy Customs Sports Club (2023), Ranasinghe was a mainstay of the Panadura squad since COVID where he impressed across all formats.

During the 2022 SLC Major Clubs Limited Overs Tournament, he starred taking 16 wickets at 20.90. This, alongside his 12 wickets at 20.75 in T20 cricket, makes him one of Sri Lanka's best left-arm quicks in domestic white ball cricket.

Whilst known as a seamer, Ranasinghe is a handy batter in the lower-middle order. He is eager to spend a summer playing abroad to evidence his all-round ability. Again, Ranasinghe is a player that comes highly recommended Chanaka Ruwansiri, who has been one of the best overseas pros in recent history. A highly-rated player for any club next summer.
