Dian Forrester is a high quality all rounder and one of the brightest talents in South Africa.

A hard hitting left handed batter and brisk seam bowler, there is quite the buzz around this impressive young man.

After a glittering junior and amateur career, Dian has exploded on to the South African professional domestic scene since making his debut for Free State in 2023. He has excelled with bat in hand across all formats, averaging in the mid 40's at first class level and the high 50's in List A cricket, along with an average hovering around the 30 mark in T20 cricket, it is clear to see Dian is an exceptional talent. He is also a genuine all rounder, with a best of 6/48 in List A cricket highlighting his value with the ball in hand. His performances have earned recognition with the South African Emerging Team and it is predicted that if his progress continues, he is a future Proteas international in the making.

Dian has also enjoyed considerable success overseas. Playing for Aberdeenshire CC in Scotland as an amateur, he was simply outstanding, racking up 1,280 runs at an average of 91.4, along with 48 wickets at an average of 11.85.

Without doubt one of the best players available to clubs this year, Dian is now set to head to the UK again after signing with Middleton CC in the Lancashire League.
