Dylan John Squire is an 18-year-old all-round cricketer currently playing for Ivybridge Cricket Club in the Devon Cricket League A Division.

A middle-order batter and right-arm medium-fast bowler, Dylan has been involved in cricket since the age of six and has progressed through school, club, county, and academy pathways.

Having represented Devon Under-16s and younger age groups, Dylan continued his development by joining the Somerset based Academy programme at Richard Huish College, where he has further refined his skills in a high-performance environment.

Standing at 6'1", Dylan is recognised as a competitive, dependable, and adaptable all-round cricketer. As an opening bowler, he adopts an attacking mindset, looking to take early wickets and build pressure on opposition batters. With the bat, he is a composed middle-order player capable of anchoring an innings, rotating the strike effectively, and building partnerships when stability is required.

One of Dylan's greatest strengths is his attitude towards the game. He embraces challenges, responds positively to setbacks, and is committed to continuous improvement. Coaches have consistently praised his work ethic, development, and willingness to learn, while teammates value the contribution he makes both on and off the field.

Through years of dedicated practice and countless hours spent refining his bowling action and overall skill set, Dylan has established a strong foundation for future success. He remains ambitious, believes there is significant room for further growth, and is determined to continue challenging himself as he pursues opportunities to compete at higher levels of the game.
