Ethan Campbell is an exciting young prospect from Manawatu, New Zealand.

A right-handed top-order batter, who also bowls slow-left-arm orthodox, Ethan represents Palmerston North in the Manawatu Premier Competition. A talented 19-year-old, the 'Kiwi' has already represented Central District U19's, a year below his current age group.

A classy stroke maker, Campbell often bases his game around rotating in the middle overs, as well as looking to put pressure on the bowlers from the very start of his innings. His left-arm spin is accurate and economical, and in recent seasons the CD U19 has averaged little over 13 with the ball in hand.

In 2023/24, Ethan racked up over 400 runs across all formats averaging in the mid-twenties. With the ball in hand, 'Kiwi' Campbell took a staggering 28 wickets in just 14 innings, averaging a ridiculous 12.87.

Now seeking to continue his cricketing journey, the New Zealander is looking for a stint in the Northern Hemisphere at the conclusion of the current 2024/25 season. No doubt a handy pick up for any club looking to add an extremely talented three dimensional youngster into their squad.
