Euan Irving (18), is a young and highly talented left-arm spinner from Staffordshire, England.

In 2024, Irving played for Stone SP Cricket Club in the North Staffs and South Cheshire Premier League, having moved from his home club, Little Stoke, in pursuit of greater opportunities to develop. He closed out the season with 35 wickets, primarily in the Second XI, and was rewarded with a well-earned First XI debut.

Further recognition of his talent came with selection for Staffordshire County Cricket Club's U21 side, where he impressed with the ball. Now, with the 2025 season approaching, Irving is fully focused on cementing his spot in the First XI and continuing to contribute at the county level.

Eager to challenge himself in new conditions, Irving is now looking to gain overseas experience to further enhance his skills. A dedicated and enthusiastic cricketer, he would be a fantastic addition for any club seeking a self-financing player who will embrace both the game and the culture of his new home.
