Eve Sales is an exciting wicket keeper/batter from Kent.

Sales is currently playing in the Kent Women's Premier League for Hayes Cricket Club. Last season with a strike rate of 141.6, she averaged 34 with the bat with 170 runs in just 8 innings. Previously a RA medium pace bowler, she is now a skilled wicket-keeper with 9 catches in the last Women's League season.

The gloveman is no stranger to senior mens cricket either, where she has captained the 3rd XI mens side the last couple of years. Eve is a keen and qualified coach, who has been a coach at her local club and district for 12 years. Over the last three years, she has ran the U15 and U17 mixed teams and is a well respected and experienced member of the coaching staff.

She is also a qualified primary school teacher and has been teaching Year One for the past two years in a school in South East London. Sales is now keen to head overseas this winter.

No doubt an exciting option.
