Felix Mann is an impressive all-rounder from Kent, England.

Mann is a talented right handed middle order batter and slippery medium quick right arm seamer.

The youngster recently finished school at famous Millfield School and has been one of the standout performers for the side in recent times, including a blistering 102 not out off 47 balls against Eastbourne College.

The all-rounder has in recent times been part of the Sussex County Cricket Club age group system, and is looking to push into the 2nd XI side over the course of the summer. At club level Mann represents Sidcup Cricket Club in the Kent Cricket League and now he has been away for the winter and finished school is hoping for a big UK 22026 season.

The Englishman travelled to South Australia this season to play for Tasman Cricket Club, where he also was picked for the league rep side. Mann impressed with 25 wickets at 14 and nearly 300 runs at 24.

Mann is also a keen and qualified coach, and is now seeking a winter away to take his game to the next level.
