Fionn Baker is a committed and passionate seam bowler from Worcester, England, with a growing reputation for his work ethic, maturity, and all-round contribution on and off the field.

A product of the Herefordshire County Cricket Club U16/U18 and Emerging Player Programme, Fionn has developed through quality coaching environments and competitive county fixtures. He currently attends the prestigious Royal Grammar School Worcester, where he has earned full colours for his outstanding performances and dedication to school cricket.

At club level, Fionn represents Old Elizabethans Cricket Club in the Worcestershire County Cricket League, where he continues to hone his skills as a frontline seamer when school commitments allow.

His cricketing journey has already included valuable overseas exposure, having toured India and Barbados, where he faced high-quality opposition including the Delhi Capitals and Franklyn Stephenson Academy, gaining crucial experience in challenging conditions.

Set to complete his education in mid-2025, Fionn is eager to continue developing his game in Australia, with a strong preference to be based in Brisbane or Sydney, where he has access to family accommodation.

A disciplined, driven young cricketer, Fionn would make an excellent addition to any club looking for a developing quick with overseas experience and a strong attitude towards continuous improvement.
