Fraser Farrell is an aggressive top-order batting all-rounder from Auckland, New Zealand.

A powerful right hander, the talented 19-year-old currently plays for Pukekohe Metro Cricket Club in the Counties Manukau Premier Cricket Competition.

A former Northern Districts U19 representative, Fraser turned out for ND on numerous occasions, most notably at the 2023 National New Zealand U19's Tournament.

Since then, Farrell has also represented Counties Manukau at Hawke Cup level, whilst impressive in the Premier 1st XI for Pukekohe. With over 50 Caps for his Club, Frasers favoured format is T20, often striking at above 130 throughout his short career.

Also a right-arm medium pace bowler, the 'Kiwi' has taken over 60 premier wickets, averaging just over 20 with the ball in hand. That goes with his 1300 runs across all formats since the beginning of 2022.

Keen to progress his cricket across all formats of the game and pursue his dream of breaking into Franchise and First-Class Cricket, the New Zealander is seeking his first stint in the Northern Hemisphere where he will be available for the entire EU 2025 Season.
