Freddie Bowser is a skilled all-rounder hailing from Lincoln, currently playing for Burnopfield Cricket Club in the North East Premier League due to university commitments.

As a hard-hitting middle-order batter and a left-arm seam bowler, Freddie adds a valuable change of angle to any team.

Over the past couple of seasons, Freddie's studies have taken priority, limiting his club cricket availability. This prompted his move from his home club to the North East Premier League to reduce travel time.

Despite these commitments, Freddie managed to score over 700 runs over three months last season, including five half-centuries and one century. This season, he has already accumulated over 300 runs, with two half-centuries, all while completing his final university exams.

Now that he has completed his studies, Freddie is looking to travel to Australia or New Zealand this winter to further develop his game. With his all-round capabilities, he is set to provide significant strength and depth to any team, both with the bat and ball.

Freddie has now signed with Traralgon West Cricket Club for the upcoming 2024/25 Cricket Latrobe Valley campaign.
