G Lalbiakvela is an experienced seam bowler whose persistence and hard work in local league cricket for Luangmuang Cricket Club eventually earned him provincial selection in September 2018.

He quickly made the most of his opportunities, impressing consistently enough to secure a Mizoram contract for the 2019/20 season—a campaign that saw him truly come into his own. In January 2020, Lalbiakvela etched his name in the record books as the first Mizoram bowler to claim a 10-wicket match haul, finishing with remarkable figures of 11-125. His 8-56 in the first innings against Sikkim remains the best bowling performance in the state's history. Just a week later, he continued his fine form with a second five-wicket haul (5-55) against Nagaland, concluding the season with a total of 26 wickets at an average of 32.69, solidifying his status as one of Mizoram's premier bowlers.

While most recognised for his bowling at the professional level, Lalbiakvela is regarded as a genuine all-rounder in local leagues, frequently contributing valuable runs in the top six. Though limited in first-class opportunities, he has demonstrated his batting capability with a top score of 41.

Now a seasoned veteran, Lalbiakvela is eager to expand his horizons by following in the footsteps of fellow Mizoram cricketers (and CricX clients) KC Cariappa, Jehu Anderson, and Mohit Jangra, by pursuing UK club cricket opportunities in 2026.
