George Burrows is an exciting young fast bowler from Manchester, England.

Fresh out of first-class, the tall right-arm quick has made four professional appearances, initially for Lancashire (2020) and then more recently for Sussex (2022).

A product of the academy pathway at county cricket giants Lancashire, Burrows made his first team debut in a Roses clash against Yorkshire back in 2020. Since then, he made the move south to Sussex on a short-term contract at the start of 2022 before returning to play club cricket for Formby in the Liverpool Competition ECB Premier League for the rest of the UK season.

A tall menacing bowler, Burrows boasts a first-class best of 2-20, with an economy of 3.75 in his four fixtures played. In club cricket, he provides express pace to trouble all top-order batters and is a genuine wicket-taker with the new ball.

Burrows is now set to return to Dingley Cricket Club for their 2024/25 Cricket Southern Bayside campaign, after impressing last season...
