George Handsaker is an established, batting all-rounder who has consistently delivered at senior level since 2021. A positive and authoritative batter, Handsaker has amassed 5,344 runs over the past five seasons at an average of 38.7, highlighting his consistency across all forms of cricket and levels of competition. His record includes 34 half centuries and five centuries, with a highest score of 168, underlining his capacity to produce decisive, match winning innings. The 2025 season was spent playing in the South Staffs Division One League, for Wednesbury CC.

Renowned for his intent-driven approach, Handsaker plays a key role in setting and controlling the tempo of an innings, combining intelligent shot selection with the ability to apply sustained pressure. His consistency across formats and conditions is reflected in multiple seasons averaging above 40.

As a medium pace bowler, Handsaker provides genuine all-round value. Since 2021, he has taken 173 wickets, maintaining a strong bowling average of 23.4 while operating with control and discipline. He has delivered crucial breakthroughs across all phases of an innings, recording several six-wicket hauls, including a career-best 6/27 and regularly accounting for a significant percentage of his team's wickets.

George is also a keen coach and has worked in school environments delivering extra curricular activities.

A proven performer with a strong competitive edge, George Handsaker combines skill, durability, and impact, making him a reliable match-winner and a valuable asset in senior cricket.
