George Pritchard is an exciting seam-bowling all-rounder from Gloucestershire, England.

Pritchard is a front line right arm quick and talented left handed middle order batsman, who currently plays for Cheltenham Cricket Club in the West of England Premier League. Outside of his club commitments he is also an integral member of the the Wales National Counties side (Minor County).

The all-rounder played for Swansea Cricket Club the last 2 years, and was an essential cog in the 2023 title winning side, with 36 wickets at 19 across the season and also scored nearly 400 runs at 25. Pritchard also impressed for Wales, with 14 wickets at 22 and averaged over 20 with the bat.

The quick has recently returned from a stint in Australia where he played for Taylors Lakes Cricket Club in the VTCA from December til March. The all-rounder impressed with 19 wickets at 16 in a short space of time, albeit didnt make an impact with the bat. Pritchard is no stranger to higher honours either having represented both Gloucestershire & Glamorgan at 2nd XI in recent times.

The all-rounder has signed for Edinburgh Cricket Club in Melbourne for their Eastern Cricket Association top flight campaign.
