Georgina Williams is a power hitting batter and a right arm off spinner from Herefordshire.

Georgina has played for her county since the age of 9 before being picked up by the higher ranked county, Worcestershire CCC. Since 2019 she has been a prominent player in the Worcestershire girls pathway and had the pleasure of being captain of the Under18s this 2025 season.

In 2023/2024 Georgina was selected for the Central Sparks (regional team) EPP for the season. This achievement took her to the next level and helped progress her game playing against other regional sides plus MCC women's.

Georgina plays a key role for her home county team, Herefordshire Women CCC, since its conception in 2024. She made selection in the new domestic tier system where she's a valued player in the squad.

Georgina has played her men's club cricket at both Brockhampton CC and Woolhope CC. With her womens club cricket at a good standard in the West Midlands league until this year when club fixtures clashed with county.
She has played at Woolhope CC since a young age and playing at the men's level it has helped her career massively.
