Gian Gill (24) is hard-working & ambitious all-rounder from Sydney, Australia.

A dynamic and relentless 24-year-old fast bowler and middle order batter, Gill is currently in his seventh season of NSW Premier Cricket with Northern District Cricket Club.

Having progressed through junior representative pathways and dominated Sydney schoolboy cricket, Gian took a record-breaking 52 wickets in his final season and led his school side to a 1st XI Premiership.

Since moving into NSW Premier Cricket, Gian has spearheaded attacks across 3rd–5th Grade, including playing a key role in Northern District's 2021 5th Grade premiership.

In recent years he has firmly established himself in 3rd Grade at one of Sydney's strongest clubs, consistently opening the bowling and delivering standout spells. Over the past two seasons he has taken 25 wickets at 22.48 and a further 10 wickets at an exceptional 10.4 despite missing half a season.

Gian also brings strong leadership both on and off the field. the youngster captained Northern District's 5th Grade to a Quarter Final in 2022 and previously led an overseas tour to Sri Lanka in 2018, demonstrating maturity, composure, and an ability to unite teams in competitive environments.

A loyal and ambitious clubman, Gian continues to push for higher honours while offering valuable lower-order contributions with the bat in a highly competitive squad. He is now seeking a memorable and impactful season in the UK in 2026, bringing professionalism, leadership, athleticism, and a proven NSW Premier Cricket pedigree to any club he represents.
