Guy Bridgett is an exciting young all-rounder currently making his mark in the ECB Premier League with Newcastle & Hartshill CC in the North Staffs & South Cheshire Premier League.

A genuine all-rounder, Guy is a skilful seam bowler and a powerful middle-order batter capable of changing the course of a game with both bat and ball. His athleticism, competitive nature, and ability to contribute in all facets make him a valuable asset to any side.

A product of the Staffordshire CCC pathway, Guy has represented his home county throughout the age-group system and is now translating that experience into consistently impressive performances at Premier League level. Since breaking into the Newcastle & Hartshill first team, he has produced a number of notable contributions and is widely regarded as a player with the potential to establish himself as a strong all-rounder at Premier League level.

Off the field, Guy comes highly recommended by trusted sources as a sociable, grounded individual who integrates well into any dressing room and makes a positive contribution to club culture.

Guy recently put pen to paper with Secret Harbour Dockers in Western Australia for the upcoming 2026/27 season.
