Guy Tinwell is a talented top-order wicketkeeper-batter currently playing for Endon Cricket Club in the North Staffs & South Cheshire League Division One. A highly versatile cricketer, Guy is capable of batting anywhere in the order, from opening the innings to providing stability in the middle order, adapting his game to suit the team's needs.

Having progressed through the Staffordshire County Cricket Club pathway from Under-12 to Under-18 level, Guy has developed a strong technical foundation and a deep understanding of the game. He has also represented Newcastle University, further enhancing his experience in competitive cricket.

Guy has been playing senior cricket since the age of 14 and has become a respected and valued member of Endon CC, a well-established and rapidly growing club with an excellent reputation in North Staffordshire cricket.

In addition to his playing ability, Guy is recognised for his leadership qualities. He has captained numerous junior teams throughout his development and now serves as vice-captain of Endon's first XI, where he plays an important role in supporting the captain both on and off the field.

Away from playing, Guy is an ECB Level 2 qualified coach, demonstrating his commitment to developing players and contributing to the growth of the game. His combination of experience, versatility, leadership and coaching expertise makes him an important asset to any cricket club.
