Hamzah Amin (21) is a talented left-handed top-order batter and wicketkeeper from Newcastle, England.

Currently representing Newcastle City Cricket Club in the North East Premier League Division One. A versatile batter, he is comfortable batting anywhere from positions one to five and can adapt his game to suit any situation, whether building an innings through intelligent strike rotation or accelerating with positive, attacking stroke play.

Hamzah progressed through every age group with Northumberland County before earning selection for a Durham Academy fixture in 2023. During the same year, he also represented Park View Academy of Sport at the National Finals, gaining valuable experience in high-performance environments.

Alongside his playing career, Hamzah achieved his ECB Core Coach (Level 2) qualification in 2026, reflecting his strong understanding of the game and commitment to developing both as a player and coach.

A regular First XI performer for Newcastle City CC, Hamzah has scored over 1,000 Premier League runs, including six half-centuries, with consecutive productive seasons of 555 runs in 2025 and 426 runs in 2026. He also impressed in the club's Second XI, scoring 590 runs at an average of 29.50 before establishing himself in the First XI.

Now seeking an overseas opportunity for the 2026/27 season, Hamzah is eager to continue his development in Australian conditions. A technically sound top-order batter, reliable wicketkeeper, and qualified coach, he would be a valuable addition to any club looking to recruit a talented young overseas player.
