Harry Donelan (23) is an impressive spin bowling all-rounder from Cheshire, England.

Donelan is a front line left arm finger spinner and talented right hand middle to lower order batsman, who is a product of the Cheshire County Cricket Club age group system.

The Englishman played the majority of his cricket in Cheshire for Neston Cricket Club in the Cheshire County Cricket League, but in recent times has starred for Thornbury Cricket Club in the West of England Premier League (WEPL).

Last year he took an impressive 35 wickets at 14 with a best of 5-17 for the 1st Xi side. The year before he starred for St Fagans in the South Wales Premier League with 30 wickets at 19, and also chipped in with 276 runs at 21.

The youngster has aspirations to play the game at the highest level. After finishing his studies at Cardiff University last Summer, the tweaker jetted off to play for Marist Brothers Lismore in the Far North Coast Cricket Association. Donelan picked up 25 wickets at an average of just 16 with the ball in hand, the youngster all averaged 17 with the bat for the season.

The Englishman is now keen on return to the Southern Hemisphere in 2025/25. A qualified coach, Harry is happy to be part of a clubs coaching structure and is now seeking opportunities in and around major cities.
