Harvey Jupp is an exciting spin bowling all-rounder from London, England.

Jupp is left arm wrist spinner and talented left handed middle order batter who plays in the Middlesex Premier League for the famous Shepherds Bush Cricket Club. Last season Jupp was part of Shepherd's Bush double winning team, taking 42 wickets at 19 across the season and also scored 398 runs at 26.

Having played Gloucestershire age group cricket from U11-U17 he then moved to Oxfordshire CCC to continue his development. Joining the Home Counties league in 2021 he took 60 wickets at an average of 21 for Oxford CC. While not consistent with the bat a high score of 73 v Top of the league Henley with pro seamers Tom Scriven in the attack highlight the ability if given the opportunity. He has also represented Loughborough University 1st team taking 10 wickets in 5 games at an average of 18 and has featured for Leicestershire CCC 2nd XI and the Oxfordshire CCC NCCA side in recent times.

The all-rounder is no stranger to Australian shores having spent 2023/24 season playing for Halloora Cricket Club in the Victoria, taking 31 wicket at 16 and nearly 400 runs at 25 with a high score of 91. Due to his strong performances he also represented the league rep side at Victorian Country Week.

No doubt a serious cricketer and one we highly recommend if seeking a top end spin bowling all-rounder for the 2025/26 season.
