Hasan Mahmood is a high-class top-order all-rounder from Birmingham, England, renowned for his aggressive stroke play and skilful right-arm off-spin.

A right-handed opening batsman, Hasan combines the ability to dominate bowling attacks with the versatility to make match-winning contributions with the ball.

His outstanding performances were recognised in 2024 when he was named Warwickshire Premier Division Player of the Season, one of the league’s highest individual honours.

Hasan currently represents Harborne CC in the strong Birmingham & District Premier League and Herefordshire CCC in the National Counties Championship, consistently performing against high-quality opposition. A product of the Warwickshire County Cricket Club pathway, he represented the county from the age of 10 through to 17 and has also gained valuable experience playing 2nd XI cricket against first-class county opposition.

A dedicated and ambitious cricketer, Hasan possesses a strong work ethic, winning mentality and genuine desire to continue developing his game. His ability to influence matches through aggressive top-order batting and effective off-spin makes him a highly valuable all-round asset across all formats.
