Henry Caruana is a promising young seam bowler from Wiltshire, United Kingdom.

Capable of consistently bowling at 80mph (128kph), Henry possesses a strong, repeatable action and generates impressive bounce and swing, making him a constant challenge for opposition batters. A genuine fast-bowling enthusiast, he is passionate about developing his pace and refining his craft to reach the next level.

Henry has represented Wiltshire County Cricket Club at both Under 16 and Under 18 level over the past two seasons, gaining valuable representative experience against some of the county's best young cricketers.

At club level, Henry represents Burbage & Easton Royal Cricket Club, where he has been a regular member of the Second XI for the past three seasons. During that time, the club earned promotion from Wiltshire Division One into the West of England Premier League – Wiltshire, with Henry playing an important role in that success.

His performances with the ball have been highly encouraging, taking 13 wickets at an average of 17.3 and a strike rate of 22.9, including two four-wicket hauls. Across his time at Burbage, he has maintained an impressive bowling average of 20 and a strike rate of 27.7, highlighting his ability to consistently take wickets.

Henry also enjoyed two successful seasons with the First XI at Dauntsey's School, where he led the attack as the opening bowler. He played a key role in a number of notable victories, including a standout four-wicket haul against Canford School. During his time in the school First XI, he claimed 16 wickets at an average of 15.8 and an outstanding strike rate of 16.1.

A dedicated and hardworking cricketer, Henry is committed to improving every aspect of his game, with his immediate ambition being to break into Burbage's First XI, who compete in the WEPL Premier One, one of the strongest club competitions in the region.

Henry believes an overseas season will be a vital step in accelerating his development, allowing him to gain valuable experience in different conditions while continuing to build his pace, skillset, and confidence. He also sees the opportunity as an important foundation for future overseas seasons as his career progresses.
