Himasha Liyange is an experienced and dynamic batting all-rounder who has been competing at first-class level in Sri Lanka for the past decade.

Since making his professional debut in 2016, he has accumulated 171 matches across all three formats, consistently delivering strong performances with both bat and ball.

A solid top order batter, Himasha has amassed nearly 2,500 first-class runs at a healthy average of 30, underlining his reliability and temperament in longer-format cricket. He also has a further 1,637 List A runs for good measure. His career tally includes 34 professional half-centuries and 2 hundreds, with a career-best score of 116, reflecting his ability to play substantial, match-defining innings. Known for his consistency, he has built a strong reputation within Sri Lanka as a dependable run scorer in all conditions.

While not always fully utilised at the professional level, Himasha is also a confident off-spin bowler, capable of delivering strong, economical spells, an attribute that adds genuine value in club cricket.

Himasha is planning his maiden UK season in 2026 and is expected to have full-season availability. He represents an excellent all-round option for clubs seeking a proven and adaptable run scorer who can also contribute useful overs with the ball.
