Holly Mayers is a talented all-rounder from Wales.

Mayers plays her cricket for Chester Boughton Hall Women's first team, competing in the Cheshire Women's League. Last season, she achieved the highest strike rate for the team, with 98.44, scoring 182 runs over 12 games including twenty-five 4's and five 6's. Holly played for her country (Wales) for 7 seasons and plays men's cricket for Buckley CC in the North Wales Cricket League, always batting in the top 5.

She also bowls 1st change using medium pace and is a regular wicket taker in all forms of the game. She's an exceptional fielder, agile, quick and has a very strong arm. She hit her top score of 85 last season for the University of Leeds Women's cricket team, who she also coaches with her ECB Level 2 Core coach qualification.

Holly plays for Leeds/Bradford MCCU as well, where she trains 4 times a week and bats at 3. Overall, Holly is a very intelligent and approachable young person with a high level of fitness and broad knowledge of the game.

She is now keen to head overseas to challenge herself and is planning on travelling with her sister.
