Hugo Caldicott is a talented top-order batter and experienced captain from Wales, currently representing Wales National Counties in the NCCA while serving as vice-captain of Usk CC in the South Wales Premier League.

A product of the Glamorgan pathway, Hugo captained Cricket Wales at every age group from Under-14 through to Under-18. During this period, he led his side to the ECB T20 title and the ECB 50-over final, averaging 42 throughout the tournament. He has also represented the Glamorgan Academy, gaining valuable experience within a professional cricket environment.

Over the past five seasons, Hugo has amassed more than 5,600 runs, including nine centuries and 37 half-centuries, underlining his consistency and ability to deliver at the top of the order. Renowned for his leadership, professionalism and relentless work ethic, he is a driven cricketer who consistently strives to perform at the highest level and brings significant value to every team he represents.

The talented Welshman is now keen to head overseas and test himself.
