Ikrām Alikhil is a rising star in Afghan cricket – a dynamic wicket-keeper batter currently representing Afghanistan in both Tests and ODIs.

A standout from a young age, Alikhil burst onto the scene with a record-breaking 86 against the West Indies at the 2019 ICC U19 World Cup, surpassing Sachin Tendulkar’s record for the highest score by an 18-year-old in the tournament. It was his second U19 World Cup, building on his unforgettable 107* in the 2017 ACC U19 Asia Cup final that sealed Afghanistan’s maiden title.

He made his Test debut soon after in March 2019 and has since featured in 2 Tests and 31 ODIs. While averaging 22.58 in ODIs, his red-ball credentials are even more impressive, averaging nearly 40 in first-class cricket with back-to-back standout domestic seasons – 247 runs at 61.75 (2024/25) and 193 runs at 48.25 (2025).

Talented with the bat and sharp behind the stumps, Alikhil is now eyeing franchise opportunities to take his game to the next level.
