Imran Mir is an exceptionally talented right-handed opening batter making significant strides in Afghanistan’s domestic cricket scene. Having showcased his potential early on by representing Afghanistan U19s in 9 ODIs—including the ICC U19 World Cup in South Africa—Mir has since established himself as a key figure in both first-class and List A formats.

With over 2,000 first-class runs at an average of 37 and five centuries, Mir’s consistent performances have placed him firmly on the radar for full international honours. His breakthrough came during the 2022/23 season, when he averaged an outstanding 52.50, highlighted by a match-winning century (112) in the Ahmad Shah Abdali 4-Day final, steering Maiwand Champions to the title.

In May 2024, Mir impressed again for Afghanistan A against Sri Lanka A, scoring 62 and 53 in the first-class fixtures, further strengthening his case for Test selection. Alongside his batting, he can contribute handy off-spin bowling, adding to his value as a cricketer.

Currently in the midst of another strong red-ball campaign, Mir is very much in the minds of national selectors for future Test cricket. He is now eager to broaden his experience overseas and has set his sights on an English club season for 2026, where he aims to refine his skills and continue his cricketing development.

A highly recommended prospect, Imran Mir represents an excellent opportunity for any club looking to add a promising, technically sound opener with international pedigree.
