Irushka Thimira is a talented young left-arm orthodox spinner and handy lower-order batter currently making his mark in Sri Lanka's domestic circuit. Born on 28 July 2004, the Chilaw Marians spinner has quickly gained recognition for his wicket-taking ability and composure under pressure, especially in red-ball cricket.

Since making his domestic debut in 2022, Irushka has featured across all three formats and built a solid reputation as a reliable spin option. In 12 First-Class matches, he has taken 27 wickets at 35.22, including two five-wicket hauls, with standout figures of 6 for 62. These performances underline his growing maturity and knack for producing breakthroughs in long-format cricket.

In the List A arena, Thimira has proven equally effective. He has bagged 22 wickets in 19 matches at an impressive average of 22.36, with best figures of 4 for 21. His consistent economy of 4.17 highlights his ability to maintain control in pressure situations, making him a valuable asset in limited-overs formats.

His T20 credentials are also promising. In just 8 matches, he has picked up 8 wickets at 19.88, with an excellent economy of 5.82, further showcasing his ability to adapt and perform in shorter formats. While his batting contributions have so far been limited—highlighted by a First-Class top score of 39—he continues to work on his all-round game with the aim of becoming a more complete cricketer.

Irushka's cricketing journey reflects discipline, potential, and a hunger to grow. His calm demeanor and strong work ethic have already made him a dependable figure in the Chilaw Marians setup, and his performances are steadily turning heads beyond Sri Lanka.

Now actively seeking overseas opportunities for the 2026 season and beyond, Irushka is eager to test himself in foreign conditions—particularly in the UK. With his control, flight, and ability to deceive batters in all formats, he shapes as a valuable spin-bowling option for clubs looking to add both skill and professionalism to their side.
